

SUPREME COURT OF ILLINOIS

MONDAY, MARCH 17, 2008

THE COURT MADE THE FOLLOWING ANNOUNCEMENTS:

MISCELLANEOUS RECORD

M.R.21877 - In re: Larry E. Smith. Disciplinary Commission.

The petition by respondent Larry E. Smith for leave to file exceptions to the report and recommendation of the Review Board is denied. As recommended by the Review Board, respondent is suspended from the practice of law for two (2) years, with the suspension stayed after one (1) year, and respondent placed on probation subject to conditions, as indicated.

Before the suspension will be stayed, respondent must comply with the following conditions:

1. Respondent shall begin and continue to receive the care of a psychiatrist who will monitor his psychotropic medication, and comply with all treatment recommendations of that psychiatrist, including the taking of prescribed medications;
2. Respondent shall complete the outpatient treatment program he had been engaged in through the Xerox Corporation's Employee Assistance Program, or a similar program;
3. Respondent shall sign the necessary releases to allow his treating physicians to: (a) disclose to the Administrator on at least a quarterly basis information pertaining to the nature of respondent's compliance with his treatment plan; (b) promptly report to the Administrator respondent's failure to comply with any part of the established treatment plan; and (c) respond to any inquiries by the Administrator regarding respondent's mental state of compliance with any established treatment plan.
4. Respondent shall notify the Administrator within fourteen (14) days of any change in treatment professionals.
5. Respondent shall enroll in a law office management program sponsored by or through the Cook County, Chicago or other Bar Association and shall, upon enrollment, notify the Administrator, in writing, of the name of the attorney with whom respondent is assigned to work. Respondent shall successfully complete the law office management program at least thirty (30) days prior to the end of the first year of his suspension. Through respondent's participation in the law office management program, respondent shall establish and utilize the following:

a. A system for maintaining records as required by Supreme Court Rule 769;

b. A diary and docketing system in accordance with the requirements established by the law office management program, including a mechanism by which approaching statutes of limitations and other filing deadlines are noted;

c. A system by which telephone messages are recorded and telephone calls are returned in a timely manner;

d. A system by which written requests by clients for the status of their legal matters are responded to, either orally or in writing, in a timely manner;

e. A system whereby clients are apprised at the outset of representation of the basis upon which fees will be calculated and costs paid;

f. For cases in which the fee is to be calculated on an hourly basis, a system by which clients are provided with regular itemized billing statements provided at least quarterly, setting forth the services performed by respondent, the date upon which each service was performed, the time spent by respondent on each service and the amount to be charged to the client;

g. A system for the handling of funds belonging to clients and third parties that conforms to the requirements of Rule 1.15 of the Illinois Rules of Professional Conduct.

6. Respondent shall attend and successfully complete the course conducted by the Illinois Professional Responsibility Institute within the first year of his suspension.

In addition, during the probationary period, respondent also must comply with the following additional conditions:

7. Respondent shall authorize the attorney assigned to work with him in the law office management program to:

a. Disclose to the Administrator on a quarterly basis, by way of signed reports, information pertaining to the nature of respondent's compliance with the law office management program and the above-described conditions;

b. Promptly report to the Administrator respondent's failure to comply with any part of the above-described conditions;

c. Respond to any inquiries by the Administrator regarding respondent's compliance with the above-described conditions.

8. Respondent's practice of law shall be supervised by a licensed attorney acceptable to the Administrator. Respondent shall notify the Administrator of the name and address of any and all attorneys with whom he establishes a supervisory relationship. Respondent shall authorize the supervising attorney to provide a report in writing to the Administrator no less than every three months, regarding the nature of respondent's work, the number of cases being handled by respondent and the supervisor's general appraisal of respondent's continued fitness to practice law.

9. Respondent shall implement a system for the handling of funds belonging to clients and third parties that conforms to the requirements of Rule 1.15 of the Illinois Rules of Professional Conduct.

10. Respondent shall attend meetings scheduled by the Commission probation officer as requested by the Administrator. Respondent shall submit quarterly written reports to the Administrator concerning the status of his practice of law and the nature and extent of compliance with the conditions of probation.

11. Respondent shall notify the Administrator within fourteen (14) days of any change of address or change in treatment providers and professionals.

12. Respondent shall comply with the Illinois Rules of Professional Conduct and shall timely cooperate with the Administrator in providing information regarding any investigations relating to his conduct.

13. Respondent shall reimburse the Commission for the costs of this proceeding as defined in Supreme Court Rule 773 and shall reimburse the Commission for any further costs incurred during the period of probation.

14. At least thirty (30) days prior to the termination of probation, respondent shall complete and provide proof to the Administrator of the payment of restitution to: (a) Loyola Medical Center in the amount of $1,753.40; (b) Loyola Hospital in the amount of $82; and (c) Tory Hogsett in the amount of $156. Respondent is also required to pay any late fees or interest charged by these medical providers.

15. Probation shall be revoked if respondent is found to have violated any of the terms of probation. The remaining period of suspension shall commence from the date of the determination that any term of probation has been violated, and, in addition, the suspension shall be until further order of the Court.

Suspension effective April 7, 2008.

Respondent Larry E. Smith shall reimburse the Client Protection Program Trust Fund for any Client Protection payments arising from his conduct prior to the termination of the period of suspension/probation.
